

Dear Hillary,

My name is Shaghayegh.

I am 14 and live in Camp Ashraf, Iraq.

I am afraid I am going to be murdered.

My father was tortured to death by Iranian government in 2008 since he was a supporter of Mujahedin-e-Khalq (MEK) opposition movement. So was my sister, Faezeh, 20 who was killed along with 35 others by Iraqi forces in Camp Ashraf on April 8.

US Congressmen were prevented from visiting us here in Ashraf after the attack.

Now I await my fate in Camp Ashraf with my mother, two brothers and 3,400 other men and women. The U.S. had promised us PROTECTION! Instead, the State Department has listed us as terrorists, the excuse for Iraqi government to murder us.

Save us by removing the MEK from the State Department terrorist list.

In the photo from left to right: I am the first, then it is my mom. We are both saying goodbye to my sister Faezeh. My brother is next to us.

Removing the MEK from the terror list is the right thing to do

Please do it now

Before we are murdered!!

Camp Ashraf, 60 miles northeast of Baghdad, is home to 3,400 members of Iran's principal opposition movement, the Mujahedin-e Khalq (PMOI/MEK). Some 1,000 of the residents are women and one-third are former political prisoners in Iran, who survived the Iranian regime's reign of terror and found safe haven across the border. Hundreds of university graduates from the United States and Europe joined them in the campaign to establish a secular, democratic, and non-nuclear republic in Iran. In July 2004, the United States recognized the residents of Ashraf as "protected persons" under the Fourth Geneva Convention and signed an agreement with each resident to protect them until their final disposition. In violation of that commitment, the US handed over protection to Iraq in 2009. On April 8, 2011, Iraqi forces, acting at the behest of Tehran, attacked Ashraf, killing 36 and wounding hundreds more. In a similar assault in July 2009, eleven residents were killed.
