MARYAM RAJAVI: TEN-POINT PLATFORM FOR FUTURE IRAN

1. The ballot box is the main criterion for legitimacy. Accordingly, the Iranian Resistance seeks a republic based on universal suffrage.
2. We want a pluralist political system, freedom of parties and assembly. In Iran of tomorrow, we will respect all individual freedoms. Complete freedom of opinion, speech and media will be guaranteed and any censorship or inquisition will be banned.
3. For the free Iran of tomorrow, we support and are committed to the abolition of the death penalty.
4. The Iranian Resistance is committed to the separation of church and state. Any form of discrimination against followers of any religion or denomination will be prohibited.
5. We believe in complete gender equality in political and social rights. We are also committed to equal participation of women in political leadership. Any form of discrimination against women will be abolished. Women will enjoy the right to freely choose their clothing.
6. We want to set up a modern legal system based on the principles of presumption of innocence, rights of defense, and the right to be tried in a public court. We also seek the total independence of judges. Cruel and degrading punishments will have no place in the future of Iran.
7. We are committed to the Universal Declaration of Humans Rights and international covenants and conventions, including the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, the Convention Against Torture, and the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women.
8. We recognize private property, private investment and free market economy.
9. Our foreign policy will be based on peaceful coexistence, international and regional peace and cooperation, as well as respect for the United Nations Charter. We will establish relations with all countries around the world.
10. We want the free Iran of tomorrow to be devoid of nuclear weapons and weapons of mass destruction.
